Subject: Coffee Pool

Good morning,

Our final coffee bill is due now. Due to the flood back in October, we had to have our filter changed to ensure we were not drinking contaminated water. The changing of the filter along with labor caused our bill to be higher.

The supplies we are using now is what we are paying for along with the filter and labor cost.

The total cost per person is $17.47. You can write a check directly to me or feel free to transfer to my PayPal account at camaryjones@yahoo.com. If you have a balance from the last time I collected, please add it to the current cost.

I will no longer order in advance. Once all of the supplies are used, I will let you know how much it will cost for Will to deliver coffee, cups, sugar and creamer. Included in this fee will be the monthly fee ($15) to have the filtered water cooler. Payment will be due at that time.

If you have any questions, please see me.

Thanks!
