Choosing A Software Provider Webinar

Choosing A Software Provider Webinar

Tomorrow we are hosting a webinar that can save you thousands of dollars and hours. Learn how to vet your next software provider!

In this webinar, we'll teach you to navigate through a company's marketing and sales promises so you learn how to choose a strong partner right from the beginning.

Panelists?

Get your wisdom from Technology Advice, who qualifies software buyers en masse daily. Dan Percy, CRO will be sharing case studies that highlight the importance of knowing what to ask and expect.

Fred Stacey, VP of Sales & Marketing from Connect First, will be sharing what you need to be cognizant of from the infrastructure side. Learn the inner working of what makes great support, how software providers hide their frailties and what you can ask to make sure you are getting what you expect.

Sign up now and save yourself (and your company) a TON of hassle.
