

State of South Carolina
Proclamation
by Governor Jim Hodges

WHEREAS, Technology Students Association (TSA) is a national career and technology organization for students preparing for engineering and industrial technology careers; and

WHEREAS, TSA is committed to helping its members become leaders in social, economic, and community activities by increasing knowledge and understanding of our technological world; and

WHEREAS, TSA helps prepare students for the challenges of a dynamic world by promoting technological literacy, leadership, and problem solving, resulting in personal growth and opportunity; and

WHEREAS, TSA's commitment to school-to-work as a national effort to better prepare young people and adults for the work force has earned them recognition by the United States Department of Education and the National School-to-Work office.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Hodges, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim February 11 – 17, 2001, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the many contributions made by TSA to the future success of the young people of the Palmetto State.

Jim Hodges
