Hi Rob! Tried to call – just wanted to check in as promised!

We are all set to get to Columbia for Tuesday morning! I believe we will be flying in late Monday evening.

Crew members are still being organized; we will get you names ASAP, probably by Sunday.

We will be staying at the Hilton downtown, near the Governor's Mansion. Regarding topics and questions...here goes:

TOPICS FOR GOV. HALEY TO TALK ABOUT:

--- What was it like for her to grow up in South Carolina as the daughter of immigrants from India? Are there lessons she can offer to others from immigrant families?

--- As a woman, is there REALLY a glass ceiling in the American political world?

--- What does Gov. Haley think we need to do to pull together as a nation?

--- Gov. Haley's reaction to the horrific murders at Mother Emanuel...and how did that terrible time affect her. Did she learn anything from the victims' families and their response?

--- Why are Republican women doing so well as candidates for Governor?

QUESTIONS SHE COULD POSE TO TOM:

--- Tom, the issue of race has always been so important to you...why is that?

--- Tom,, you're the father of three daughters. Has that affected the way you look at women's rights?

--- Tom, what do you think we need to do to unite as a nation?

--- Tom, in your 50 years at NBC News, what is the single most memorable event for you?

--- 9/11 was a nightmare for the country. But we pulled together as a nation in the aftermath. Do you think we are OVER 9/11?

If we have anything else will let you know, Rob. We can't thank you enough for working to make this happen! You've been so helpful, and Marianne and I are VERY grateful! As is Tom! All best, cheers, Tim
