Denying safety to refugees is as unamerican as it gets.

Refugees need a home and a place to rebuild their lives. We should offer that to them.

We congratulate ourselves on being the land of the brave and all that a nation should be, but we are retreating into cowardice. Jesus told his followers, 'I was a stranger and you invited me in.' Everything we stand for urges us to protect those fleeing tyranny. We must have courage and do what we know is right.
