

Dear Governor Nikki R. Haley,

Hello, my name is Spencer E. Dabbs. I'm 15 years old and I'm writing to you on the concern of the bathroom situation that's been going on. I would like to know where our state stands on this issue because like many others, I am against this situation. I believe that businesses that support this, should use their own money from their expenses and build a unisex bathroom. I think this is giving sex offenders, pedophiles, and rapist the opportunity to rape or molest young kids, male and female. We're asking for a problem that's not even a problem yet. I say that if you're a man, go to the men's restroom and if you're a woman, go to the women's restroom. I'm not saying that they can't use the restroom, but to prevent this from escalating to more problems, why don't we push for making them a unisex bathroom? It's not discriminatory against anyone. It would be discrimination if they weren't allowed to use public restrooms, but that's not the case. I'm for protecting young kids and adults from getting raped or molested. What can we do about this situation? Where do we stand in this situation? Is there anything I can do to help you fight this? If I cannot help with this, then give me some resources or connections to people that I need. It frightens me when I become an adult and have children of my own, to think that men could dress as women and claim they're a transgender to have access to the restrooms to go and do the unthinkable to my child. Again, I think we're asking for problems that do not exist yet. There are going to be some problems and I guarantee that I am not the only one that thinks this.

I would greatly appreciate a response from you concerning these issues. I am just a concerned teenager that cares about my future.

Regards,

Spencer E. Dabbs
