

When death was not attending physician's fault, then the father, householder, etc., should make this return. If a child breathes even once, it must be reported as stillborn. The report is desired of stillbirths before the fifth month of pregnancy.