Crystal Richardson is one of my dear friends and she didn't deserve this pain. This man should not be spending Christmas with his family when she can never spend a holiday with her son again.

I believe he should have to pay for his crimes, ask of them. Two young men's lives were cut short because of his crimes and negligence and he should have to take responsibility for that. And the families deserve justice as well.

He shouldn't be out when he took the life of two innocent people. He needs to be charged with it
