Danny,

You did. I hadn't heard from Hank and wanted to make sure it got where it needed. Sorry for the confusion.

Hank,
I didn't see a response but I assume you are the right person to send my power point to. If not please forward it to the right person. Thank you and look forward to seeing all on Monday.

Danny,
I will have a PowerPoint. Who can I email it to so it can be loaded?

Also, please ask him if he has a PowerPoint that he will be using. If so, we will need to load it beforehand.

LGOA Webinar

Event starts: Monday, October 2, 2017 10:00 AM America/New_York
ID: 123-123-123

Lt. Governor's Office on Aging

The Lieutenant Governor's Office on Aging partners with state and local governments, non-profit organizations, and the private sector to enhance the quality of life for seniors and vulnerable adults. We strive to be the first resource considered when anyone needs information, service options, and guidance concerning issues related to seniors and vulnerable adults.

☰ Event agenda

Please join the Lieutenant Governor's Office on Aging on October 2, 2017 at 10:00am for an interactive webinar on strategies for engaging seniors in our communities. Mount Pleasant Police Chief Carl Ritchie will discuss initiatives in his department that keep seniors in touch and allow officers to detect problems early, Alex Cataldo from SLED will review alert programs in South Carolina, and Sam Wiley will provide some helpful information on the Alzheimer's Association and their programs. Webinar attendees will be encouraged to join the conversation through the chat capability. Please visit the link below on October 2, 2017 at 10:00am to participate as we share information to help law enforcement keep our seniors safe across South Carolina.
