Do you need more yard signs displayed to increase name recognition?

Are you Looking For More Volunteer Support during This Elections Season?

Gravis marketing has the answer.

We have a specially designed software program that allows voters to order a yard sign or sign up to volunteer for your campaign through our revolutionary automated calling system.

Communicate with voters and residents in your voting district in a cost effective and efficient manner. We can provide the lists needed, communicate with voters and homeowners, and receive feedback. We then provide you with the names and addresses of the voters who want yard signs or wish to volunteer with your campaign.

Our newly designed software allows voters to request a yard sign or sign up to volunteer, through an automated phone call.

As the election season heats up, campaigns are looking for cost effective ways to get a message out to voters. Gravis Marketing has all of the resources you need for a successful campaign.

Increase your exposure during the last weeks before the election to ensure that voters recognize who you are and what position you are running for. Studies have shown that the use of yard signs increase votes by 6 to 10 votes per sign.

Here is how our automated calls work

Use your own call lists or one provided by Gravis marketing

Call potential voters and homeowners with a short message about your campaign and invite them to place a yard sign at their home.

If the homeowner wants a yard sign they simply press one. We provide a list of all callers who want to receive a sign, with their address. You then deliver a sign to the homeowner.

The same system can be used to increase your volunteer base.
