

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, payroll professionals in South Carolina play a key role in maintaining our state's economic health, carrying out such diverse tasks as paying into the unemployment insurance system, providing information for child support enforcement, and carrying out tax withholding, reporting, and depositing; and

WHEREAS, employees and businesses contribute to local, state, and federal treasuries through payroll taxes each year, helping to fund important civic projects such as schools, roads, and parks; and

WHEREAS, payroll departments nationwide collect nearly 2 trillion dollars annually in order to comply with numerous federal, state, and local wage tax laws; and

WHEREAS, payroll professionals have become increasingly proactive in leading initiatives that help educate citizens on key payroll-related issues facing businesses and workers in America; and

WHEREAS, payroll professionals across our state strive to meet the highest standards in improving compliance with government procedures, reducing costs, and improving the payroll process in South Carolina.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 1 - 5, 2014, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the important work done by payroll professionals across the Palmetto State.
