Senator Lindsey Graham
290 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D C 20510

Dear Senator Graham:

We noticed in today's Sun News that despite Gov. Haley's request to Secretary of State John Kerry not to place any Syrian refugees in South Carolina, because of concerns of inadequate security checks, the federal government is placing Syrian refugees here. We also learned that in response to a query from our governor the FBI Director, James Comey, specifically said, "We have no background on these refugees."

We strongly object to the granting of admission of these Syrian refugees into this country. We do not believe it is the responsibility of the United States to absorb massive amounts of refugees from all corners of the globe irrespective of the reasons for their leaving their homelands, their physical, economic, social and or political status. If only one percent of these "refugees", who are not all small children and widows, are persons committed to kill Americans, we would be admitting 1,000 terrorists per 100,000 refugees. Given the recent carnage in Paris by a few, how much damage could 1,000 do to our population, and sense of security of our country?

Note we will strongly support any incumbent or any person as a candidate for political office that actively shares our position and will work very hard to unseat any incumbent that does not share our position irrespective of party affiliation.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Berg
