Katherine,

I hope you had a great weekend. I have received the information below requesting a letter from the Governor for a military retirement. The event is scheduled for November 2, 2014. Is it possible for a letter to be completed before that date?

Thank you,
Haley

Haley,

Per our conversation, attached please find MG Gill Beck's bio and resume. His military retirement ceremony is scheduled for 2 Nov 14. I am respectfully requesting official correspondence from the Governor's office recognizing his stellar military career. If this request can possibly be expedited, please send the document to my home address:

Marty Wells
17 Granbury Court
Columbia, SC 29229

Again, thank you so much for assisting our efforts to recognize the military service of a true American Patriot!

Sincerely,

Marty Wells

U.S. Army Reserve
Brigadier General
Gill P. Beck

Major General Gill P. Beck assumed command of the 81st Regional Support Command on 30 September 2011. Previously, General Beck served as Commanding General, Army Reserve Legal Command and before that as Chief Judge (Individual Mobilization Augmentee), Army Court of Criminal Appeals. During 2008, General Beck served as the Executive Officer for the Army General Counsel and in 2007 as Associate Deputy General Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, Office of the Secretary of Defense, Pentagon. In 2005, he deployed as Staff Judge Advocate of Task Force 134, Multi-National Force-Iraq, Camp Victory, Baghdad, Iraq. General Beck served on active duty in the 1st Infantry Division, 3d Armored Division, and 82d Airborne Division, and in the Army Reserve in the 108th Division (Institutional Training) and 81st Regional Readiness Command.

General Beck's military education includes a Master of Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College and an LL.M in Military Law from The Judge Advocate General's School. He is a graduate of Appalachian State University, where he graduated second in his class, was Captain of the Football Team, and First Team Football Academic All-American, and Duke University School of Law, where he graduated with High Honors and served as Senior Editor for the Journal of Law and Contemporary Problems. His military awards include the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters, and Iraqi Campaign Medal.

General Beck, his wife Mary Jo Beck, and their three sons reside in Asheville, North Carolina, where he serves as an Assistant United States Attorney for the United States Department of Justice.
