Subject: S92 AS AMENDED ~ Website email from RANDOLPH CLARK

Lieutenant Governor Bryant Many of us in South Carolina are praying for a bill to go thru to give us badly needed relief from our antiquated alimony laws. S92 As amended is a great start toward this effort. Last year a bill made it thru the House and was sent to the Senate and passed committees only to have a Minority Report placed on it by Senator Gerald Malloy, This year a bill has made it thru its first reading in the Senate and Senator Malloy has objected to the second reading at the last minute and want to stop it from crossing over to the House. How can one senator control the wished of the State of Sc. If there is anything you can do to force the second reading and get this bill to the House please do so. Thanks for your efforts and I look forward to you helping us out. Randy Clark
