

This holiday season, we look back on our time in the Governor's Mansion with immense gratitude and pride. We are so thankful to have had the chance to serve you and our great state, and we look forward to a bright future for all.

Warmest wishes for a joyous holiday season and a peaceful, prosperous New Year.

The Tomblin Family
Governor Earl Ray, First Lady Joanne,
son and daughter-in-law
Brent and Brittany

