Good morning!

On behalf of the board of directors of the First Tuesday Republican Club of the Midlands, we are pleased to extend an invitation to you to join us for our February luncheon. Our guest speaker is gubernatorial candidate Catherine Templeton.

Our club was founded more than 30 years ago, to bring Republicans from Lexington and Richland counties together for lunch once a month, to enjoy fellowship, and engage in discussions with elected officials and candidates for office. Our membership has now expanded to include counties across the Midlands.

The club does not endorse candidates for office nor do we make financial contributions to them. Instead, we provide a forum for our elected leaders and candidates for office to discuss current events with us and enable like-minded conservatives to make informed decisions when it comes time to vote for the men and women who want to represent us as public officials.

Last fall, we were honored to have Lt. Gov. Kevin Bryant and former Lt. Gov. Yancey McGill, both candidates for governor, speak to our club. We are currently working with Governor Henry McMaster's office to schedule his appearance later this spring. We do hope you will review the lunch details below and join us to hear from our third candidate for governor, Catherine Templeton:

Tuesday, February 6, 2018
