Ms Todd,

I never saw or heard anything from Mr. Whitman.

The ballot today has BRAD HUTTO listed as a candidate for the Democrat Party and also the "Working Families Party". My wife commented to me after we voted that she had never seen that before.

SO how will votes for BRAD HUTTO be done????? Will it be by "Party alone" or totaled to be for the "person" ????
As you see, this could end up being a problem as a Democratic ploy to help Brad Hutto. I suspect the Democrats will ask that ALL votes for Brad Hutto be totaled and applied to his column against his opponents

Jack,

I referred your email to Will Whitson, our political reporter, to investigate and respond to you. I'm sure he's on it.

Thanks,

Did you receive my email yesterday? Do you know whom to ask for answers or is one of your staff checking?

Thanks,

Jack Wilson

Ms Todd,

I figured you would know the answers. I looked on Orangeburg County's website and ended up at this site for election info:

<https://info.scvotes.sc.gov/Eng/Candidate/CandidateSearch.aspx?ElectionId=19547&QSHelperHash=3C51383AB7F5F51435C72E4640FE778571964E2C>

I looked at "Filing Document" forms and see that a "FEE" is only charged to Democrats and Republicans. Why? Libertarian candidates, petition candidates, and United Citizens candidates are not charged (for governor, I didn't look at other positions).

Also, for Senate, how is that Brad Hutto is allowed to register as a candidate for the Democrat Party and also for "Working Families" Party?

Thanks,
