South Carolina State Parks > Koala Kare Products

at 13:20:42 on 12/15/2020 UTC · 🌐

Did you know 9 out of 10 dads have gone into a public restroom that did not have a changing table? Thanks to Pampers, we now have Koala Kare Products changing tables for our public restrooms at Myrtle Beach State Park, so moms and dads who stop by are better equipped to take care of their babies! Isn't that amazing? Thank you Pampers!

Anna Murphy Thank you! We actually stop here on the way to North Carolina with our State Park Passport for a bathroom and run around break and I remember this being very frustrating for several years! ❤️❤️❤️

Kimberly Kennedy This is amazing. My husband was always so frustrated when our boys were in diapers because hardly anywhere had changing tables in the men's room.

Tonya Castro That's great! Dad's change diapers too!!

Monica Callender Perry It's great that they have it now, but why did it take so long? Do all the state parks have changing tables in the men's rooms? My state tax dollars support the park system and need to be allocated equally between men's and women's access to childcare facilities. All parents should be considered when making decisions on how to allocate funds, and this is long overdue.

Pj Hodge This sounds as if Pampers donated this to the park. I'll have to read the article

David Davis Pj Hodge, the post said Thanks to Pampers, so I say yes, they were donated by Pampers.

Dalton Shull Monica Callender Perry, actually- the State Parks now get VERY little funding from the State Tax dollars. They are primarily supported from their operating revenue. That's why it's so important to support our parks by always being honest in using the pay boxes, etc.

Nancy Giotta That's great—now for the rest of the sites!!

Katy Anderson Kimberly Kennedy yes, so ridiculous! Why is changing diapers strictly a Mom's job? Also, many Dad's take their babes out for solo outings!

at 17:16:14 on 12/15/2020 UTC

Monica Callender Perry Dalton Shull We get a park pass every year because it pays for itself pretty fast.

at 17:16:45 on 12/15/2020 UTC

Kimberly Kennedy Katy Anderson right? It never made sense to us. My hubby made many a phone call to businesses asking why there were no changing tables in men's restrooms! It's ridiculous!!

Bruce Grasty How long is it going to take the kids to tear down?

at 22:07:47 on 12/15/2020 UTC

Steve Anderson How about getting some handicapped restrooms for those in wheelchairs at Hunting Island?!

at 23:20:02 on 12/15/2020 UTC

Nicky Moskal This entire state is sooooo behind the times with things like this. Thanks for being part of the change!

Robert James I bet 10 out of 10 people have went into a public restroom without one at some point in time. Who actually comes up with this stuff. Ask moms, I'm sure they'll agree with me.
