Happy Thanksgiving from the CPCF Team

Since inception, America's leaders and citizens have acknowledged the blessings bestowed on our nation because we recognize there is a Higher Power than those holding the highest offices in our land. Presidents, members of Congress, and everyday citizens have acknowledged God as the Creator of Rights and the Supreme Authority over our nation. These same leaders continually gave thanks to God for His protection and guidance.

It was just one week after Congress approved the First Amendment to the Constitution, which emphasizes the Freedom of Religion, that President George Washington called for a National Day of Thanksgiving to be on November 26, 1789 "to be devoted by the people of these United States to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks...for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government...particularly the national one now lately instituted, for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed..."

The CPCF wishes you and your family a wonderful day of celebrating this great American tradition.

Sincerely,

Lea Carawan
