Re: Welvista, Inc. MOA FY 2012-2013

Dear Director Keck, Mrs. Singleton, and Ms. Williams:

This letter is to formalize the discussion we had on 2 May 2013 pertaining to the additional funding necessary for Welvista to carry out the mission required under the above-referenced MOA.

In addition to the retroactive payment of $146,352.00 for services rendered from July through October 2012, Welvista has issued invoices to SC DHHS as follows:

November, 2012	$	85,579.50
December, 2012		65,077.00
January, 2013		110,035.00
February, 2013		90,240.50
March, 2013		100,477.00
April, 2013		124,195.00

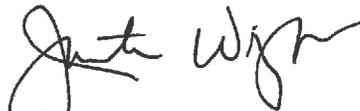

During this time, we have seen an exponential increase in applications to be processed and a phenomenal growth in prescriptions filled. We are processing more than 2500 applications each month. At this time, the projected invoices for May and June are $150,000.00 each.

Therefore, we hereby formally request that our FY 2012-2013 MOA be amended to reflect these needs as we strive to fulfill your mandate that we reach and serve as many of the uninsured citizens of South Carolina as possible. By carrying out our mutual mission to provide prescription medications to these individuals, we will certainly ease the burden placed on the State and County Governments as well as the taxpayers in our State to meet the medical needs of these citizens.

Welvista appreciates your partnership with our organization and the consideration of additional funding for FY 2012-2013. I look forward to your response.

With sincere regards,
