

From: GOVERNING Daily <newsletters@governing.com>
To: Lt. Governor's OfficeLtGov@scstatehouse.gov
Date: 11/1/2018 10:25:40 AM
Subject: Should Candidates Running Against Millionaires Get More Money?

Subscribe to Governing Magazine & Newsletters
Follow us on Facebook / Twitter / LinkedIn / Instagram

Today's newsletter presented by NIC

FEATURED STORY FOR NOVEMBER 1, 2018

Should Candidates Running Against Millionaires Get More Money?

That question, along with many others regarding campaign finance and ethics, will be in front of voters on Election Day. PLUS:

- November's Most Important Ballot Measures

LATEST GOVERNING NEWS & COMMENTARY

GO PUBLIC

Can Free Money Make Up for Widescale Job Loss?

Faced with the prospect of up to a third of jobs being eliminated by automation in the next decade, governments are taking another look at Universal Basic Income.

POLITICS

States' Supreme Court Elections Struggle for Attention

Eight states have competitive elections next week whose outcomes could influence a number of policies. But these down-ballot races are largely overshadowed.

POLITICS

Alabama Votes on Ten Commandments Amendment

A Republican closely tied to former Alabama Chief Justice Roy Moore is backing a new effort to allow Biblical commands to be displayed on public grounds.

VIEW

Giving More Women the Choice Not to Get Pregnant

We're not making the use we should of forms of contraception that can dramatically reduce unplanned pregnancies and infant mortality.

CONTENT PROVIDED BY NIC

Economics of Implementing Digital Government Services

Maine.gov uses 156 online government services with interactive features to allow citizens, businesses, and governments to access information and to conduct business the state government remotely.

LEARN MORE

LATEST WEB HEADLINES

HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES

- A $4 Billion Oversight? California May Have Provided Health Coverage for Ineligible Patients
- As National Premature Birth Rates Rise, Some States Are Turning Things Around

INFRASTRUCTURE & ENVIRONMENT

- 1 Governor's Ambitious Climate Goal by 2025: Reduce Greenhouse Gases by 40 Percent
- Officials in Newark Insisted the Drinking Water Was Safe. Now Testing Reveals Lead Contamination.

POLITICS

- After Voters Purged From Rolls, Ohio Ordered to Count Some Provisional Ballots in Midterms
- Colorado Governor Says He's 'Leaning Strongly' Toward Presidential

- Run

- \sa280*\pn\pnlvblt\pnf1\pnindent240\pnql\pntxtb-GOP Lieutenant Governor Candidate Says Running Mate Blocked Her From Hawaii Debate

EDUCATION

- \sa280*\pn\pnlvblt\pnf1\pnindent240\pnql\pntxtb-Students With Disabilities Can Now Receive Free Public Education in Rhode Island Until Age 22

NEWS IN NUMBERS

62,000

The number of people who could receive health coverage if Idaho voters approve Proposition 2 on Tuesday. The ballot initiative was recently endorsed by the state's Republican governor, Butch Otter.

MORE

WHO SAID THAT?

"We cannot let President Trump and the NRA distract us from fact and logic with their nonsense that more guns is the answer. ... Time and again, they are proven wrong."

MORE

CONTENT PROVIDED BY NIC

gov2go: The Nation's Digital Personal Assistant for Government

Gov2Go brings together all of your citizens' interactions – at every level of government – onto one convenient platform in a way that is personalized, timely, and relevant.

LEARN MORE

Unsubscribe | Opt out of all e.Republic email | Privacy Statement

© 2018 e.Republic. All rights reserved. 100 Blue Ravine Road, Folsom, CA 95630. Phone: 916-932-1300