Alex -

Becca will provide y'all with additional background information for the call for the secretary to have.

We are good with y'all going ahead and scheduling the call for Friday morning.

Let us know what reporters y'all plan to invite so we can add on anyone who has contacted us and expressed interest in being included. Please be sure to reach out to and include Jeremy Borden of The Post and Courier and Andy Shain of The State.

Does anyone else have any questions or issues?

Rob

Looping Alex Clark in.

Let me know of any issues the group has. If there are no issues, we will get a final OK to start executing here.

All,

As I understand it, the governor's itinerary – and those of representatives from Commerce who traveled to India – is ready to be provided to reporters who have said they are interested in reviewing them.

Given the number of reporters who are interested in this, and the fact that we'll be past the holidays, let's go ahead and plan for Secretary Hitt to brief reporters on the trip and the itineraries on Friday. Can be done by conference call with interested reporters. Commerce can invite reporters who participated in the trip's preview call and also anyone who has asked for the governor's or commerce officials' itineraries.

It's important we go ahead and get this information to interested parties because we have so many other events on the horizon.

Does this work for the group?
