Honourable Governor Haley,

1. I take this opportunity to congratulate you on your re-election as Governor of South Carolina. It is more than obvious that you have won the hearts of your constituents, and have been working diligently for the economic development of your State and creation of jobs.

2. It was an honour for me to receive you in my office in April this year. It is an occasion that I have shared with many of my friends. I will treasure that meeting as you climb up the political ladder in your country.

3. I have been following media reports that cover your initiatives as Governor even more closely since your visit to Ottawa. I noted from the media reports that you met with the Prime Minister during his visit to the US and are now headed to India with a business delegation. I am confident that the outcomes would be beneficial not only for your State but for India as well.

Warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Nirmal Verma
(Nirmal Verma)

The Honourable Nikki R. Haley
Governor of South Carolina
