Today got a little more frantic than I expected. Can we touch base on Monday? Thanks.

Ted and Christian,
Please see the email below from Deloitte. I received the report yesterday afternoon and will be finished with our review tomorrow. Do you have some time tomorrow or Monday to talk about the report and what the Governor may want to speak about in the press availability? Also, who should Deloitte's PR lead talk with about their participation in the event?

Marcia

Marcia –

Please see some questions below from Deloitte's PR lead Courtney Flaherty, who is going to help prepare and support you next week. Please let us know the best way to do this – perhaps a call the Governor's PR team member helping prepare for this?

Thank you,
Srini

Hi Srini,

Thanks for sharing the information about the South Carolina press conference. Following are a few additional questions that I had regarding the event:

What are the main points about the recommendations that the governor plans to cover? For example, are there certain key messages she plans to deliver?

What are areas where you want Deloitte to be prepared to address, or where she may defer to you or Mike to take questions?

Will there be a prep session in advance of the briefing?

Will the governor's office issue any other materials – such as a press release or a summary of the recommendations (other than what is at the beginning of the Deloitte document)? If so, is a draft available?

Thanks,

Courtney
