Theresa,

Thank you for sharing this information with me. These types of responses are disturbing to me as we do pay for the Area Agencies to provide services in the region. Information is one of the services. I will speak to the COG Director next week.

Again, thanks for sharing.

Tony

Denise/Tony,

I just wanted to let you know that the message from Sharon Seago was in response to a request made by a member of my staff on behalf of the Midlands Care Transitions Community. This community group consist of staff members from Palmetto Baptist, Palmetto Richland, Providence Hospital, Fairfield Hospital, a FQHC, several home health agencies, several nursing homes, and other community providers and members. The request was for a 15 minute presentation at the next community meeting on services available to people in the community by the SC Area office on Aging. The Pharmacy Association lets the community hold the care transition meeting there free of charge.

I am sending you this for your information, and to let you know that this is the only AAA that where have had this response.

Best regards,
Theresa
