Veldran, please see the memo below regarding the composition of the SC Commission on Women.

There are currently only four members serving on the Commission. The membership statute is found in the SC Code §1-15-10. The commission consists of 16 members. One member is appointed from each congressional district, and the remaining nine are at-large seats. Members serve terms of four years and until a successor is appointed. No member may serve more than two consecutive terms. The chart below outlines the vacant seats on the commission and the term expiration dates of those members currently serving.

Please let me know if I can provide you or Senator Coleman's office any additional information.
