

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, family and consumer sciences professionals are dedicated to ensuring the well-being of individuals, families and communities throughout the Palmetto State; and

WHEREAS, family and consumer sciences professionals include elementary, secondary, post-secondary and extension educators and administrators, along with other professionals in government, business and nonprofit sectors, who are committed to using interdisciplinary, integrative and preventive perspectives to address the issues surrounding individuals and families as consumers; and

WHEREAS, family and consumer sciences professionals contribute to the health, productivity and fulfillment of our residents by providing practical knowledge about the fundamentals of everyday life, including human growth and development, personal behavior, housing and the environment, food and nutrition, apparel and textiles and resource management.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 2012 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize family and consumer sciences professionals for their many contributions to the continued well-being of the residents of the Palmetto State.
