Now that I'm thinking about it...I want to have a copy of the book and of Awesome with me when I'm out there w/NRH for the presser. So I can cheat if the right (read: "wrong") kind of question comes up that maybe I can quick answer in 5 seconds if I don't know off the top of my head. Like I was asked this afternoon what DMH's GF growth rate was today, and I said I thought it was something like 7%, but didn't know off the top of my head. That's something I could cover in 5 seconds if I have that stuff with me. You mind getting those ready around 10:30 or 11? Thanks.
