I take it she will have to go to a studio. Is this something Zach can do?

Do you think we will know anything today? If not doing monday, we need to release the space.

If we want to redo the voice over on the video we did last year .... See below for the only times the studio has availability. Can you see if one of those times ( Monday or Friday of next week) would work for her?

Amy,

So, ideally, the best times to shoot would be between 1 and 5 p.m. on either day – Monday, March 23 or Friday, March 27.

Thanks!

Amy,

Looks like Monday and Friday of next week are the two available options for filming the Governor at the Genesis Studio (where we have recorded her previously.)

Rather than make any assumptions, I've ask Amanda to confirm that any time during the work day either day is available – before you circle back with the Governor's Office.

Good morning Beverly,

I have good news. The Genesis' studio is available Monday, 3/23 or Friday, 3/27 for filming the Governor and we will edit the video in house. I hope to have an estimate for you by tomorrow.

Just let us know if either of these days work, and we will go ahead and book the studio.

Thanks so much,
AMG
