Subject: Fwd: Top 10 Reasons to Vote for Ted Cruz by "Spengler"

Friends,

As my friend said, the attached article is informative; and I agree that Cruz is a realistic candidate. We are fortunate to have him in the primaries.

This brief article below is by David Goldman, aka "Spengler." He is one of the two or three analysts of world and national affairs to whom I pay the very closest attention. He is not a rabid political hack nor a GOP cheerleader at all. Goldman is particularly astute in foreign affairs and is a classical realist.

Let me reiterate that Goldman does not endorse candidates. He is a "40,000 feet" guy who has always been very astute on world affairs. His reasons here to vote for Cruz are thoughtful, realistic and based on actual facts and not mere gut reactions or rabid partisanship. ....

I strongly recommend this thoughtful article, whether you currently like Cruz or not. It may not convince you, but it will most definitely inform you.
