Dear Governor Haley,

Please be advised you will be receiving several letters from my 4th grade class requesting January 12, 2016 off from school. This was a persuasive writing assignment and the students wanted to make sure you are aware they are on their way to you in the mail so you can start thinking about your decision. I am faxing, along with this letter, some additional letters for you to preview. Have a wonderful afternoon and Go Tigers!

Dear Governor Haley,

We, the class, believe that we should have no school on January 12th 2016. As I'm sure you know, this is the day after the National Championship football game where Clemson will be playing. Although I for one, am not a fan, they will be representing South Carolina. People who go to the game at 8:30 to 12:30 coming back at midnight do not deserve the stress of having to be at school before 8:00am. Therefore, I think you should take consideration in closing school on January 12th, 2016.

Thank you,
Zachary Davis

Dear Governor Haley,

I'm a student at Chastain Road Elementary School. AS you know, the National Championship is January 11, 2016 at 8:30 pm. Most of us won't have the opportunity to see this historic event, could you make January 12, 2016 a state wide holiday so we won't be tired the next day. Thank you Go Tigers!

Dear Governor Haley,

I am a Clemson fan so I would like to watch the National Championship, Clemson Vs Alabama. It would be awesome if you made this a statewide holiday because otherwise I will not be able to watch the whole game. The game starts at 830 and ends around 1130 to 1200 and my mom won't let me stay up that late. Since Clemson hasn't won the National championship in about 35 years, I really want to see them try to beat Alabama. Everyone I live with is a Clemson fan and no one in my house will be able to watch the game. My mom is a very big Clemson fan so she might stay up and watch the whole game. When she wakes up to take me to school she will be so tired so that is why I hope you let all of South Carolina stay out of school Monday January 12, 2016 so we can watch the Clemson Tigers play in the National Championship.

Sincerely, Hayleigh Hart

Dear Governor Haley,

Clemson is playing Monday, January 11, 2016 at 8:30pm. For the People at home who don't get to go to Arizona, the game will last until 11:00pm or 12:00am.

Therefore, I was wondering if we can have a Statewide holiday on January 12, 2016.

That way we can go to the Clemson stadium and see all of them get their trophy for the National Championship game. Also we don't have to get up early and won't fall asleep all day. I admire your hard work. Go Tigers!

Sincerely,

Aubrey Satterfield
