Hi Rob & Chaney,

I have made it to SC and, it is true, I love it so far! As Jenna said, I came from Iowa so it is a nice change. I was there for 6 months to cover the caucus. Now I am here to cover the primaries.

I assume you guys are based in Columbia? I am in Charleston right now and heading to Columbia on Monday. If you guys are around I would love to meet up. If Monday does not work throw out some other times and we we will make something happen.

Looking forward to it, Kylie

Hey friends -

Kylie is a good friend of mine who was our Iowa embed for CBS. She's just gotten to SC where she's told me on the record, she never wants to leave. Obviously! She'll be there through the primaries.

Would be nice for y'all to know each other. Perhaps you could grab coffee soon. I'll try not to be too jealous.

See you soon!
Jenna
