Good morning Taron

Just following up to inquire about your response to Paul and Judy about a visit next week as we didn't want to drop any balls in the air! Thanks B

I am looking at possibilities for coming to SC to meet with staff and learn more about your capacity. Is November 11 a state holiday there? Is the 12th a possibility.

Good morning Judy,

I am certain we will be able to arrange for the participation of our core group in a combination of in-person meetings and conference calls. We will work hard to make that happen. When I confirm the date and time of our introductory meeting, I'll provide the names and contact information of those you'll be working with in the immediate future.

I'm glad you'll be able to join us in December for our Stakeholders Meeting. I'm copying John Shackelford who will be working with me on all implementation strategies moving forward. He'll ensure you receive notices and any other pertinent information as we plan for the meeting.

Thank you,

Taron

Hi Taron,

Paul and I have looked at calendars and want to suggest some options for our further knowledge-sharing/building. Paul has more flexibility to come to SC in November than I do but we were thinking we could do this by a combination of phone and in-person meeting. We both can be available November 9 from 10 to 3 (me by phone and perhaps Paul in person) and November 12 from 9-11. Paul may also be able to spend some more time in person with you in November and he can add those dates. I will be able to attend your December 4 stakeholder meeting and will hold that date; Paul has another commitment that week. I haven't copied everyone on this but let me know if should or please forward to all who need to be on this email trail. Let us know what works for you all. Judy
