Subject: CSG eCademy: Drawing the Line on Partisanship in Redistricting, March 24

Redistricting policy in the United States has become highly partisan, with some state legislatures at odds over where and how to draw district lines. The legality of independent redistricting commissions has come into question and is currently being decided by the U.S. Supreme Court. Tune in to this FREE eCademy webcast at 2 p.m. EDT March 24 featuring national experts on elections and redistricting policy discussing the contemporary redistricting policy landscape, as well as innovative policy solutions. More...
