Subject: roads

Hey Chaney & Rob,

I'm working on a four-story series on roads. The first one ran yesterday and looked at the Infrastructure Bank.

This Sunday, I'm doing a story on Malfunction Junction. The next I'm doing a story on the revolving door at DOT.

But in three weeks I'm doing a story on whether the flood has increased political pressure to pass a gas tax. Would the governor be willing to sit down for this?

Thanks for your help,
Cassie
