

Good day,

My name is Andrew Scott, attorney to a contractor with a major South African mining company. Unfortunately this contractor died with his entire family in a plane crash about five years ago during a summer holiday trip to the Bahamas.

I am contacting you for the reason that you bear the same surname with my late client and as a result of that I intend to present you to the bank as the next of kin/heir to enable inherit the funds left behind by my late client and subsequently disburse between you and myself.

Going by the ultimatum letter sent to me by the holding bank, they intend to confiscate the total funds if I do not bring forth a relative to make claim. As it is, I cannot front myself to make this claim as I'm only a legal representative to the deceased. As his attorney, I'm pleased to contact you in order for me to front you as the surviving relative to my late client to enable the holding bank acknowledge you as beneficiary to the said fund.

The principal amount is US$7.5 Million. Plans have been put in place to enable execute the claim successfully putting legalities into consideration. I sincerely seek your consent if interested in order to proceed. If you are interested and willing to participate, kindly reply to this email message by sending me your full names, contact address, phone numbers, age and occupation.

As soon as you response is received, I will furnish you will more details on how to proceed.

Regards,

Andrew Scott
