Mary Jo, Natalie and Tanveer –

First of all, I just want to thank you all for your quick help with the website today when I was having issues that I feel sure were my own doing.

Secondly, I want to connect you all with the rest of our team because you will most likely be hearing from them tomorrow as there will be extended periods of time tomorrow when I won't have access to my computer to update the website.

Chaney and Camlin, who are copied on this email, will likely utilize you guys at some point tomorrow to update the homepage and news page of our website. Does it work for you if they simply send you guys over the text of our press releases like I did this afternoon? I think we will only need help one time around 12:00-1:00 PM, but I wanted to make sure you guys were on the lookout.

Please let us know if this is an issue or if there's anything we can do to make the process easier on you guys. And again, I can't thank you enough for your help this afternoon.
