Subject: The reason for the Season

"Behold, I bring unto you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

Luke 2:10-12 (KJV)

Dear Friend,

As you take this special time to gather with family and friends, I hope you will remember the reason we celebrate Christmas.

Our Founders built this nation on the bedrock of a Judeo-Christian foundation.

John Adams famously said, "Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."

As my family celebrates Christmas, we pause to remember the humility of Christ's beginnings, and we reflect on the Salvation afforded to us by our Creator.

I am eternally grateful to know a kind and loving God who gave His Son as a gift to the world.

Though we sometimes get caught up in the hustle and bustle of the commercial Christmas season, we must take time to give thanks for the gift of life and for our Salvation.

Additionally, I'd like to thank you and your family for your friendship and support.

Have a Merry Christmas – and a Happy New Year!

Sincerely,

Senator Lee Bright
