I spoke with Cecil again regarding the stage. They get their paint for the stage from Rose Talberts. They pick the color off of a chart that is available at their stores but not online. I spoke with the store and they stated that black would be easy and they could give us direction on a SC flag indigo color. It may be best to stick with a neutral color like black so there is no confusion as to the particular blue. Please let me know if you have any suggestions or ideas on this.

Thank you,
Haley

My suggestion would be a deep rich blue - the color of the state flag.

Kelly,

I spoke with Cecil Branham, the DOC contact, regarding the stage for Carolighting. The stage is being stored at the DOC offices and he will arrange for the priming and painting of the stage prior to Carolighting. He said that the stage will be delivered the Monday before Thanksgiving at 8:00 AM. He will confirm these details with Craig.

Do you have any color suggestions? I am waiting on a call back from Cecil to discuss if they have access to paint that can be used for the stage.

Thank you,
Haley
