Join us in the fight against hunger

Dear Governor Haley,

As we head into the final months of the year with the holidays just around the corner, we're always mindful of the 1 in 6 South Carolinians who are living without a secure food supply. Given the recent disaster, we know this issue is more important than ever. Together we can use our connections to make a difference.

Bank of America is partnering with Feeding America for the 4th annual Give A Meal <<http://www.bankofamerica.com/give>> program to fight hunger. Through the end of the year, for every $1 donated to Give A Meal, Bank of America will match it with an additional $2, up to a total of $1.5 million in donations. Donors may choose to direct the giving locally to Harvest Hope Food Bank so the money will directly benefit those in need here in our community. Last year, Harvest Hope received over $50,000 from Give a Meal donations and the Bank of America matching funds. That equated to over 500,000 meals for families in our community.

We invite you to join this effort to fight hunger and share this opportunity with your network.

Simply visit www.bankofamerica.com/give

Our employees are also rallying around the issue of hunger through volunteer events with Harvest Hope and I encourage you to consider volunteering your time. Food banks rely on volunteers to help deliver on their mission to serve families in need – and our collective efforts can make a real difference.

We're honored to support Give A Meal and help illuminate the critical issue of hunger. As a company, we're working across sectors, including lending and investing in fresh food financing and agribusiness and environmental efforts tied to food rescue and sustainability, to help move the dial. We recognize that it takes many partners like you at the table to tackle tough community issues and create positive change in our community.

Thanks for your leadership and for sharing this message with those in your network who can take part.

Best regards,

Kim
