Trump immigration waffle reflects voter confusion on issue

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Dean Green supports Donald Trump partly because of the GOP presidential nominee's tough-on-them-all stance on illegal immigration. But the 57-year-old Republican paused as he complained about U.S. immi and acknowledged that deporting all 11 million people in the U.S. illegally would separate families. "I don't want to separate families," Green said.

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — Hillary Clinton says Donald Trump has unleashed the "radical fringe" within the Republican Party, including anti-Semites and white supremacists, dubbing the billionaire businessman's campaign as one that will "incite hate again." Trump is rejecting Clinton's allegations, defending his hard-line approach to immigration while trying to win over minority voters that Democrats have abandoned them.

Obama plans to create world's largest marine protected area

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says that President Barack Obama will expand a national monument on the island of Hawaii, creating the world's largest marine protected area. Obama's proclamation will quadruple in size a monument created by President George W. Bush in 2006. The Papahānaumokuākea Marine National Monument will contain 563,000 square miles, more than twice the size of Texas.
