McLeod Health, along with its community partners, invites you to celebrate the launch of NFP in Darlington, Florence, Dillon and Marlboro Counties.

Octavia Williams-Blake, Associate Vice President of Occupational Health for McLeod Health, will speak at the event.

Please RSVP to Susan Bailey at sbailey@mcleodhealth.org by November 7.

We hope to see you there!

NFP is a nationally recognized, evidence-based public health program that pairs registered nurses with low-income, first-time mothers. During more than two years of intensive, client-centered home visiting, nurses help moms to have healthy pregnancies, ensure healthy child development and achieve their personal goals.
