Just a question.....how did you know/find the answer?

I had originally guessed Hampton because I know he was in Charleston for an exposition but it was not a park then so the kids decided that it would not be that one. We have been learning about the Presidents and found the answer in one of our resources that we have been using. It had a picture of Pres. Roosevelt at the park talking about a visit in the caption.

We had also combed through our "Official Guide to SC State Parks" and other books we have on SC but could not find the answer

What is so funny is that park is on our list of parks we want to visit in the spring! We make list of things we want to do each year and that is second on the list.
