Please briefly explain your concern: Back in December I applied (type the back if necessary) for medicaid. A couple weeks later I received a notice saying I did not send needed information.

I personally went to the Richland County Health

Care Building and hand delivered the items needed.
I have called at least 6 times since then and the matter has not been resolved.

Dear Congressman Wilson:

Thank you for referring Ms. Joanna Heltter to our agency regarding the difficulties she faced during our Medicaid eligibility determination process. Good customer service is very important to us, and I regret her unpleasant experience.

We have been in direct contact with Ms. Heltter to apologize and to assist her family with their healthcare concerns. She also has contact information for a Medicaid supervisor in our Richland County Office if she has additional concerns or questions.

Thank you for your continued interest and support of the South Carolina Medicaid program. If I may be of further assistance on this or any other matter, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Hettler:

Congressman Joe Wilson contacted our agency on your behalf regarding your concerns about Medicaid eligibility and problems you faced when trying to reach a Medicaid eligibility worker.

Good customer service is very important to us, and I regret your unpleasant experience during our eligibility determination process. We are reviewing the issues you have encountered, and we are working to correct them.

I am pleased to inform you that your application for Medicaid's Low Income Families program has been approved retroactive to December 1, 2008. If you and your family have any outstanding medical bills since that date, please ask your providers to submit those claims to Medicaid for payment. Also, if you have any questions about your coverage, please contact Ms. Jessie Alford, Medicaid Supervisor in our Richland County Medicaid Office at (803) 714-7361. She will be happy to assist you.

We hope this information is helpful.

Sincerely,
