College Place, Incarnation, Gonzales, Win in Tourney

In the second round of the Sunday school consolation tournament, College Place defeated St. Francis 26-10, Gonzales took the measure of St. Luke 23-20 and Incarnation nosed out Washington Street 22-20.

In the College Place affair, the winners led all the way, having very little trouble with St. Francis. With Kerr playing the center position for the victors, and pouring seven field goals through the hoop for a total of 14 points, the game was not as slow as the score would indicate. Behles, guard for St. Francis was the only player to get more than one field goal, sinking two for a total of four points.
