Founded in 1974 to advocate for equal rights for immigrants, AAFE has transformed in the past four decades to become one of New York's preeminent housing, social service, and community development organizations.

With support from Partners in Progress (PIP), AAFE has been able to integrate its efforts into a single coordinated project and work with partners to identify community needs and create a community-driven plan for the neighborhood. PIP funding has enabled AAFE to collect key data on residents and local resources through a community needs assessment survey and focus groups. In addition, AAFE has also developed a One Flushing Community Opportunity Center, a four-story commercial building that will serve as a "one-stop shop" for residents and business owners seeking services through AAFE, community organizations and government agencies in the neighborhood.
