Lack of published coverage of 2018 Personhood Day by corporate Media :

Even though three Republican candidates running for election as Governor of South Carolina in November 2018, including the current SC Governor (McMaster) and the current Lt Governor (Bryant) and a previous long-term SC State Senator (McGill), spoke at the 2018 Personhood Day event, the published coverage by the corporate media was nevertheless very limited:

Columbia, SC (WOLO) - A group of Lawmakers gathered at the Statehouse Wednesday morning to urge their colleagues to pass the so-called "Personhood Bill".

The measure contends that an individuals legal rights begin at conception, effectively outlawing abortion .

Supporters say the Bill gives a voice to the voiceless.

2018 State of the State

As Prepared For Delivery

January 24, 2018

"The most important function of government is providing for the safety and security of the people. That extends to all life – born and unborn, young and old."

"I believe that human life begins at conception. That's why, in August, I directed state agencies to stop providing state funds to abortion clinics."

"This right to life is the most precious of rights – and the most fragile. We must never let it be taken for granted."
