Subject: [FWD: Sharing the Joy of Celebrating Volunteer Work:
Ellis Island Medal of Honor]

Dear Friend:

I have dedicated over a third of my life to serving the community as a volunteer, starting with taking care of my grandparents at an early age to helping the senior citizens of Washington, DC area in the late sixties then turned to helping the needy individuals, NGO's, small businesses, entrepreneurs and other worthy causes.

It's my privilege to share this wonderful event on Ellis Island, New York with you.

On May 9th 2015, I received a very prestigious honor of my life, "Ellis Island Medal Honor". As an American of Indian Origin, this is a great honor bestowed upon me for my dedication to volunteer work for which I have so far spent more than one third of my working life. I have been a volunteer in the community for about 47 years. I have been actively in the business world for over three decades and have been a staunch advocate of small and minority owned businesses.

It was a two day celebrations starting with the dinner at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in NYC, followed by black tie events the next day starting with guarded ferry visit to Ellis Island with red carpet and Marine escort to the Great Hall of Ellis Island with Honor of Medal bestowed on the honorees, followed by a banquet dinner. They had also arranged special fireworks on the Hudson Bay for the honorees and their guests on the Hudson Bay.

I would like to share with you this honor of being a volunteer most of my life. Please find the "Press Release" and the official portrait for your kind information.

With warm regards, KV
