Hi Katherine,

No, have not run into this with TransUnion. I would make sure they are following the appropriate link and/or calling the right number and pressing the appropriate prompts.

Can you forward me the e-mail you sent to Friday's participants?

Thanks,
Carri

Carri,
Are you familiar with the response below when dealing with Transunion?
Question is from one of Rep Taylor's constituents.
Thank you,
Katherine

Katherine & Ted:

My latest FAQ e-newsletter (thanks to your info) has generated a few quick replies. The one below concerning Tansunion is a disturbing practice, if true. Please let me know how this can be corrected. Thanks.

Bill

I've been able to put the freeze on with Experian and Equifax, but Transunion seems most interested in selling memberships and I failed in my attempt to freeze that one because it makes you list a credit card number and they then charge you $17 per month unless you go back to them to cancel it.
