

When there was no attending physician or midwife, then the father, householder, etc., should make this return.